Data for the week of 30 March - 5 April 2020 (Epi week 14)

Key points
- 10% of the cases were reported from Italy, Spain, Germany and France
- 97% of the deaths were reported from Spain, Italy, and France
- More case and mortality notifications reported in a substantially reduced population of 100/100,000 population
- 67% of the cases were reported from Italy, Spain, Germany and France
- 75% of the deaths were reported from Spain, Italy, and France
- Nine countries and territories reported a cumulative incidence >200/100,000 population
- One out of 13 reported infections with information available was in a health care worker
- 95% of deaths were in persons aged 60 years and older and 68% were in males
- 91% of deaths had at least one underlying condition
- There was a steep increase in the pooled excess all-cause mortality in 24 countries and regions primarily in the age group >65 years, but also in the 15-64 years age group for week 14/2020 (see European Mortality Bulletin)

Number of COVID-19 cases (N=622,251) and deaths (N=46,430) by reporting week

For additional information see:
WHO Global situation dashboard
WHO Global situation report

The number of cases reported in the European Region doubled compared to Epi week 13/2020
67% of the cases were reported from Italy, Spain, Germany and France
75% of the deaths were reported from Spain, Italy, and France
Nine countries and territories reported a cumulative incidence >200/100,000 population
One out of 13 reported infections with information available was in a health care worker
95% of deaths were in persons aged 60 years and older and 68% were in males
91% of deaths had at least one underlying condition
There was a steep increase in the pooled excess all-cause mortality in 24 countries and regions primarily in the age group >65 years, but also in the 15-64 years age group for week 14/2020 (see European Mortality Bulletin)
In Epi week 14/2020, the percentage of COVID-19 detections in persons with influenza-like illness in the primary care setting was 1% (3 countries) compared to 6% in Epi week 13/2020 (6 countries)